Dear Sam,

I would like to take this opportunity to thank-you very much for the advice and guidance that I received from you while I was transitioning from TransCanada Pipeline Ltd. last fall. The knowledge that I gained in resume writing, how to conduct a job search and experience in interviewing techniques has helped me in furthering my career. The staff at Advantage Tech were very professional and helpful to me.

I started with the company called Sunstone Projects as a consultant after leaving TransCanada and I am now a part owner in the company. I wanted to join a small company within the oil and gas industry where I could further my engineering career in the area of project management. Sunstone is a company that offers expertise in the development, management and execution of projects for the oil and gas industry and I have been very happy and challenged in my new position here.

Yours sincerely,

Susan Saurette, P.Eng.
